The Garden Party and Other Stories

Stage 5
Katherine Mansfield
Retold by Rosalie Kerr

Oh, how delightful it is to fall in love for the first time! How exciting to go to your first dance when you are a girl of eighteen! But life can also be hard and cruel, if you are young and inexperienced and travelling alone across Europe ... or if you are a child from the wrong social class. These nine stories by Katherine Mansfield dig deep beneath the appearances of life to show us the causes of human happiness and despair.

Nelson Mandela

Stage 4
Rowena Akinyemi

In 1918 in the peaceful province of Transkei, South Africa, the Mandela family gave their new baby son the name Rolihlahla – “troublemaker”. But the young boy’s early years were happy ones, and he grew up to be a good student and an enthusiastic sportsman. Who could imagine then what was waiting for Nelson Mandela – the tireless struggle for human rights, the long years in prison, and one day the title of President of South Africa?

This Rough Magic

Stage 5
Mary Stewart
Retold by Diane Mowat

The Greek island of Corfu lies like a jewel, green and gold, in the Ionian sea, where dolphins swim in the sparkling blue water. What better place for an out-of-work actress to relax for a few weeks? But the island is full of danger and mysteries, and Lucy Waring’s holiday is far from peaceful. She meets a rude young man, who seems to have something to hide. Then there is a death by drowning, and then another ...

WORLD STORIES

Treading on Dreams: Stories from Ireland

Stage 5
Retold by Clare West

‘At home we started with an innocent life. Walking home from village dances across pale wet fields, looking at birds on the moonlit lake, playing a tune across the water in the early morning with no other sound in the clear cold air.’ Innocence and experience, loss and longing, humour and sadness run hand in hand through these stories.
