Dancing with Strangers: Stories from Africa

Stage 3
Retold by Clare West

'Sometimes I think this search is hopeless. So much has happened since I last saw my friends. Perhaps they have died or the rebels have taken them away. But I know I have to find Laker. I know she needs me.' In a country torn by war, it is easy to stop hoping. All Atita has is an old photograph. She does not even know if she will recognize Laker after all these years... The stories in this volume of World Stories are by African writers.

Rabbit-Proof Fence

Stage 3
Doris Pilkington Garimara
Retold by Jennifer Bassett

Fourteen-year-old Molly and her cousins were mixed-race Aborigines. In 1931 they were taken away from their families and sent to a camp to be trained as good 'white' Australians. They were told to forget their mothers, their language, their home. But Molly would not forget. She and her cousins escaped and walked back to Jigalong, 1600 kilometres away... Rabbit-Proof Fence is the true story of that walk, told by Molly's daughter, Doris.

Information Technology

Stage 3
Paul A. Davies

The story of information technology is a story of machines – from the ancient abacus to the small powerful computer chips of today. But it is also a story of people. Meet a woman who wrote computer programs two hundred years ago, a teenage millionaire, a man who began with a paperclip and ended with a house. And meet the criminals who want your name and your money...

Love Story

Stage 3
Erich Segal
Retold by Rosemary Border

This is a love story you won't forget. Oliver Barrett meets Jenny Cavalleri. He plays sports, she plays music. He's rich, and she's poor. They argue, and they fight, and they fall in love. So they get married, and make a home together. They work hard, they enjoy life, they make plans for the future. Then they learn that they don't have much time left. Their story has made people laugh, and cry, all over the world.

Chemical Secret

Stage 3
Tim Vicary

The job was too good. There had to be a problem – and there was. John Duncan was an honest man but he needed money. He had children to look after. He was ready to do anything, and his bosses knew it. They gave him the job because he couldn't say no. The job was like a poison inside him. It changed him and blinded him so that he couldn't see the real poison until it was too late.
